Like other businesses, Martin Marietta (the “Company”) is subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause its actual results to differ materially from its projections or that could cause forward-looking statements to prove incorrect, including the risks and uncertainties discussed in Martin Marietta’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K, which have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and are readily available at www.sec.gov. ## Non-GAAP Financial Measures

These slides contain certain “non-GAAP financial measures” which are defined in the Appendix. Reconciliations of non-GAAP measures to the closest GAAP measures are also provided in the Appendix. Management believes these non-GAAP measures are commonly used financial measures for investors to evaluate the Company’s operating performance, and when read in conjunction with the Company’s consolidated financial statements, present a useful tool to evaluate the Company’s ongoing operations, performance from period to period and anticipated performance. In addition, these are some of the factors the Company used in internal evaluation of the overall performance of its businesses. Management acknowledges there are many items that impact a company’s reported results and the adjustments reflected in these non-GAAP measures are not intended to present all items that may have impacted these results. In addition, these non-GAAP measures are not necessarily comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies.

AGGREGATES PERFORMANCE (FIRST-QUARTER RESULTS)

SHIPMENTS (tons)

- Volume growth driven by strong product demand trends, most notably in Colorado, Iowa, Indiana and Maryland
- Texas and Georgia, two of the Company's largest states by revenue, experienced project delays from record or near-record precipitation
- Tough prior-year comparison as Q1 2019 benefitted from carryover work from an extraordinarily wet 2018

PRICE

- Pricing gains across all divisions demonstrate disciplined execution of locally-driven pricing strategy

CEMENT AND DOWNSTREAM PERFORMANCE (FIRST-QUARTER RESULTS)

GROSS PROFIT (FIRST-QUARTER RESULTS)

Cement product gross margin expansion of 1,170 basis points to 25.6 percent, driven by top-line growth, production efficiencies and lower maintenance costs

Ready mixed concrete product gross margin declined 380 basis points primarily driven by Texas shipment shortfalls from record precipitation

Magnesia Specialties business product gross margin expansion of 500 basis points to 43.5 percent, driven by effective cost containment and lower energy costs

CAPITAL SPENDING TREND

COMPANY OUTLOOK

---

OPEN FOR BUSINESS... BUT NOT IMMUNE TO COVID-19 IMPACTS

- Martin Marietta, along with most of our customers, continue to operate as an “essential business”.
- Through April, we have seen minimal disruption to our product demand, operations, workforce and supply chains from COVID-19 and related government agency responses.
- Despite stable April shipment trends, the industry will likely experience lower product demand.
- We remain confident that the attractive underlying market fundamentals and long-term secular growth trends in our key geographies, both of which underpinned the Company’s record 2019 performance and strong first-quarter 2020 results, remain intact and will be evident once again as the U.S. economy stabilizes and recovers.

APRIL SHIPMENT TRENDS *

AVERAGE SHIPMENTS PER DAY (21 SHIPPING DAY ROLLING AVERAGE)

AGGREGATES

CEMENT

READY MIXED CONCRETE

* Preliminary results as of April 30, 2020

APRIL PRICING TRENDS *

AGGREGATES (per ton)

CEMENT (per ton)

READY MIXED CONCRETE (per cubic yard)

* Preliminary results as of April 30, 2020

NEAR-TERM OUTLOOK

Infrastructure construction is expected to be the most near-term resilient. That said, state Department of Transportation budgets are experiencing lower revenue collections and states may have other short-term funding needs from COVID-19 impacts that may decrease the scale and/or postpone the timing of future construction.

Nonresidential construction activity on existing projects has continued in most regions; however, many new projects are expected to be delayed or cancelled.

Warehouses, distribution centers, data centers and in-progress energy-sector projects are expected to continue.

Residential construction activity is expected to decline in 2020, as homebuilders and home buyers delay plans to move in the wake of economic uncertainty.

The industry will likely experience lower product demand in the coming months as a result of COVID-19.
